

HALESWORTH GOLF CLUB

MEMBERS' GENERAL COMMITTEE CONSTITUTION

1. THE PROPRIETORS

- 1.1 Halesworth Golf Club is a proprietary club owned by Halesworth Golf Ltd. hereinafter referred to as 'the Proprietors'.
- 1.2 The aims of the Proprietors in relation to golf are:
 - (a) to establish, maintain and operate a golf club for the Members of the Club their guests and visitors, at the Club premises at Mells;
 - (b) to promote the game of golf and all things incidental to the playing of the game of golf; and
 - (c) to provide usual golf and clubhouse facilities to members of the Club, their guests and visitors.
- 1.3 The Proprietors shall have sole responsibility for all matters considered appropriate for the successful management of the Club. These will include the control and maintenance of the clubhouse and the courses, the appointment and control of golf club staff, all issues in relation to catering, the acceptance or otherwise of potential members, the setting and collection of joining and membership fees and all other financial aspects relating to Club management.

2. THE MEMBERS GENERAL COMMITTEE

- 2.1 A Members' General Committee (hereinafter referred to as 'The Committee'), will be elected annually at an Annual General Meeting.
- 2.2 The aims of the Committee are:
 - (a) to promote the game of golf and encourage membership of the Club in the surrounding area;
 - (b) to act as liaison where necessary between the Proprietors and the membership;
 - (c) to represent the wishes and interests of members whilst acknowledging the Proprietors' requirements;
 - (d) to lead by good example, whilst at the Club, in relation to general behaviour, etiquette, dress and respect and courteousness to all members of Club staff;

- (e) to act as ambassadors on behalf of the Club, and uphold it's good name and values with visitors to the Club and whilst at other golfing establishments;
- (f) to organise and manage internal competitive golf events;
- (g) to arrange inter-club matches both of a competitive and friendly nature;

2.3 The Committee shall have neither responsibility for, nor jurisdiction over, any matter mentioned in Para 1.3 above, or for any other matter that may be, from time to time, directed by the Proprietors.

3. COMPOSITION OF THE COMMITTEE

3.1 The Committee shall be constituted the following posts, elected annually from the membership:

- (i) The Club Captain
- (ii) The Club Vice-Captain
- (iii) The Lady Captain
- (iv) Elected Ladies Member
- (v) Elected Ladies Member
- (vi) The Seniors Captain
- (vii) The Seniors Vice-Captain
- (viii) The Junior Captain
- (ix) The Competition Secretary
- (x) The Handicap Secretary
- (xi) The Treasurer
- (xii) The Committee Secretary
- (xiii) The Immediate Past Club Captain (ex-officio standing for one year only).

In addition representatives of the Proprietors shall be entitled to attend and speak at all meetings of the Committee but will have no entitlement to vote.

3.2 Members of the Committee will be drawn from those current full members of the Club who have attained at least one years continuous membership.

3.3 All members of the Committee shall be retired annually at an Annual General Meeting but (with exception of the Immediate Past Captain) may seek re-election at such a meeting.

- 3.4 The Committee may nominate candidates as prospective members of the Committee for the succeeding year and shall convey such nominations to the whole membership by written notice, at least six weeks prior to an Annual General Meeting. The membership will be invited to propose an alternative candidate(s) for any Committee position to be received by the Club Captain at least 14 days prior to an Annual General Meeting. Such nominations must include the name of the nominee, the post nominated, the name of the proposer and seconder and evidence that the person nominated is willing to stand.

In the event of two or more candidates being nominated for a particular post a secret ballot at an Annual General Meeting will be organised by the retiring committee.

- 3.5 Proposed candidates for any position on the Committee, whosoever may propose, must be sanctioned by the Proprietors prior to the acceptance of the nomination.
- 3.6 Should any elected member of the Committee leave the position, for whatever reason, earlier than the full term elected, the Committee may (by majority decision) choose one of the following options:
- (a) Allow the post to remain vacant until the next Annual General Meeting;
 - (b) Co-opt any qualifying member to fill the post on a temporary basis until the next Annual General Meeting;
 - (c) Invite nominations, (as at 3.4 above), to fill the post from the membership and, where two or more nominations are received, organise an Extraordinary General Meeting where a secret ballot of all members present will be held. (This will be particularly so in the case of the vacancy being that of Club Captain or Club Vice-Captain).
- 3.7 The Committee may, at any time, co-opt a member of the Club, who may have particular expertise or experience, in a matter either under discussion or to be discussed. The period of co-opting may be for just one, or several, meetings of the Committee.

4. ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITY OF THE COMMITTEE

- 4.1 Individual roles of members of the Committee are listed below but collectively the Committee will be responsible for ensuring that the aims and objectives listed at 2.2 above are recognised and fulfilled.
- 4.2 The Committee shall be a run on a 'not for profit' basis but may raise funds from club competition entrance fees, legal lotteries, (e.g. 100 club) and social events, involving the game of golf or otherwise. Funds raising in whatever form, either existing or proposed, shall be with the express agreement of the Proprietors, only.
- 4.3 Funds will only be used for the benefit of all members and not for individual gain. Examples of use of funds are – payment of competition prizes, sponsorship of club teams in county competition, trophy engraving, refreshments for presentation evening and other events, to which all members are invited, and the like.

- 4.4 Sufficient funds shall be retained to permit payment of known and anticipated expenditure and the Committee will not allow the bank account(s) to become overdrawn nor to secure, or attempt to secure, any overdraft facility.
- 4.5 The financial year for the Committee will be from 1st October to 30th September. The Committee will produce audited accounts at the Annual General Meeting for the latest financial year.
- 4.6 The Committee shall have no power to incur any expense on behalf of the Proprietors without prior authority thereof, nor to give any warranty on behalf of the Proprietors.
- 4.7 The Committee may act as a disciplinary body in respect of the breach, by members, of any of the rules of competitions arranged and managed by the Committee. Guidelines in respect of the manner in which disciplinary matters shall be addressed and resolved are shown at paragraph 6 below.
- 4.8 The Committee has neither responsibility for, nor authority over, breaches of the Proprietors' club rules, save to report to the Proprietors any observed serious breach.
- 4.9 The Committee will meet at least once per month through the golfing year and at any other time as considered necessary. Five members of the Committee will constitute a quorum, one of whom must be the Club Captain or Club Vice-Captain, who will chair the meeting. All members of the Committee will be advised of the time and date of any meeting and furnished with an agenda.
- 4.10 Minutes of all matters discussed by the Committee, whether at monthly meetings or otherwise, will be taken and retained. A copy of the minutes will be furnished to all current Committee members and to the Proprietors, and made available for inspection by any club member. Minutes, once agreed and after necessary amendments made, will be signed and dated as a true record by the chair of the meeting.
- 4.11 In matters where a vote is necessary, this will be conducted by show of hands, and the result of the votes, for and against a motion, recorded in the minutes. Where the vote results in a tie the chair of the meeting shall have a casting vote.
- 4.12 The Committee will arrange an Annual General Meeting to be held in the month of December. All members shall be notified, by written notice displayed in the clubhouse, of the time, date and agenda for the meeting, at least six weeks prior to the date of the meeting. The notice will also contain Committee nominations for the Committee for the succeeding year.
- 4.13 Members will be invited to notify the Club Captain at least 14 days prior to the date of the meeting of -
 - (a) Any motion for inclusion on the agenda. (There will be no facility for Any Other Business to be introduced at the meeting);

(b) Nominations for any position on the Committee in accordance with 3.4 and 3.5 above.

The Committee shall have the right to refuse to allow the inclusion of a motion, or motions, put forward as prospective agenda items, and will furnish the member proposing, the reasons for the decision to refuse, either verbally or in writing.

- 4.14 The Committee shall have the power to appoint, subject to agreement of the Proprietors, a sub-committee for the purpose of furthering or researching any particular activity within the area of responsibility of the Committee. Such a sub-committee will comprise of at least three members of the existing Committee and other non-committee members of the Club as may be deemed necessary or expedient. Any such sub-committee shall keep minutes of its proceedings which shall be made available to the Committee and the proprietors and open to view by any Club member.
- 4.15 Any such appointed sub-committee will report findings to the whole Committee who will have the opportunity to discuss results and implement or otherwise, with amendment if necessary, such findings.
- 4.16 There shall be one standing sub-committee to fulfil the requirements of the Council of National Golf Unions (CONGU) rules for handicapping as defined by the World Handicap System. This will be known as the Handicap Sub-Committee and will comprise the Club Captain, the Handicap Secretary, the Competition Secretary and a representative of the Seniors. In addition, with the approval of the Club Committee, the Handicap Sub-Committee may appoint a deputy Handicap Secretary and can co-opt another member, if deemed necessary to broaden the sub-committee's peer oversight. Neither the deputy Handicap Secretary, nor the co-opted member, need be members of the main club committee. The Ladies Handicap Committee is separate from the Men's and consists of three lady members, one of whom is the Ladies Handicap secretary.
- 4.17 The Committee shall, in all of its activities, recognise and comply with the Rules of Golf and Amateur Status, as laid down from time to time, by the Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St Andrews (The R and A)
- 4.18 The Committee shall comply with the CONGU rules and regulations of the handicapping scheme and any conditions, imposed in the scheme, by the English Golf Union.
