Want to improve your game? Book a lesson with PGA Professional Ben Jewell

Ben has experience coaching golfers of all abilities, from complete beginners to more experienced players looking to refine their game. His coaching focuses on building strong fundamentals and providing clear, simple thoughts golfers can take onto the course.

Lessons are structured to help you understand why you do things, not just how, creating a clear plan for practice and play. By improving setup, technique, and on-course decision-making.
